

STEM, Floor Standing Lamp

Here is an example of a piece in the collection where the twisting motion dictates the overall aesthetic. Carved from a single piece of solid oak there is a fluidity found within the continuous grain pattern allowing the observer to focus entirely on form. Although the nature of this dynamic spiral invites intrigue, it is subtle too in its simplicity, exuding a refined elegance perfect for enhancing any space without overpowering the rest of the room.

Stem in fumed oak

Although we can only offer this design in oak, you can choose from scorched black, fumed dark, left natural or bleached white.
